Freemasonry has such a vast store of riches that each of us can find something in it to study, ponder and treasure. The most callous and worldly can be made to see its beauty; the most inquisitive have a vast field to explore in its history; the most religious can strengthen their belief through its teachings and all can find a better way of life by adhering to its landmarks and tenets.

Freemasonry has a tremendously important part to play in the world today and tomorrow. It will in the end depend on each individual Mason believing fully in the teachings of Freemasonry and putting them into practice in his daily life. This calls for effort on the part of all of us. Are we prepared to accept the challenge?

A Few Words From The East

Brethren:

I hope this message finds You in Good Health & Great Spirits! As we enter into Our new Masonic year, The Officers have decided to shake things up a bit, while keeping our Traditions. If You have been reading Brother Jim Clancy's weekly "Sunday with The Secretary" you'd see that there are several profoundly engaging Speakers & Programs lined up to Enlighten the Brethren by sharing Masonic knowledge. While I am looking forward to all of our programs, I am personally looking forward to the Presentation by Brother Thomas R. Labagh, 33* titled ""A Hedge Hog, A Chunk of I.C.E., A Missing Tooth, A Calliope, A Babysitter and a Rubber Chicken". We have also decided to change the venue for our meals to The Courtyard Marriott on the evenings of our Instructional & Extra Meetings, at no cost to the Brethren. However, for our Stated Meetings we will still dine at The Temple. This year The Lodge has also decided to wave the cost of the meal and parking for those celebrating their Masonic Birthday that month, or the month you received your EA Degree. For the record all these things have been shared with the Brethren via Brother Clancy's "Sunday with The Secretary". If You have not been receiving "Sunday with The Secretary" please give Your email address to the Secretary, or One of The Officers, so we can rectify the situation. It is a quick read with a lot of valuable information that directly pertains to the events and upcoming plans of the Lodge. This year as Worshipful Master I want to once again challenge You. Search Yourself and find out what this fraternity means to You. Why did You join The World's Oldest Fraternity? What caused You to seek out Its Knowledge, and what do You desire from It? Find Your Answers to these very Questions and Email them to me directly at KevinMBaker84@Gmail.com. Your answers will be kept anonymous but used as rudders to steer my approach in Guiding the Brethren and The Lodge to a more Impactive, Engaging and Enlightening tomorrow. I thank You in advance for Your Participation and look forward to Our Fellowship at The February Stated Meeting.

Sincerely & Fraternally

Worshipful Master

Please support our Lodge effort to control costs by understanding rules concerning dinner reservations.

Reservations must be made no later than ten days before the Stated Meeting date. No exceptions.
