Freemasonry has such a vast store of riches that each of us can find something in it to study, ponder and treasure. The most callous and worldly can be made to see its beauty; the most inquisitive have a vast field to explore in its history; the most religious can strengthen their belief through its teachings and all can find a better way of life by adhering to its landmarks and tenets.

Freemasonry has a tremendously important part to play in the world today and tomorrow. It will in the end depend on each individual Mason believing fully in the teachings of Freemasonry and putting them into practice in his daily life. This calls for effort on the part of all of us. Are we prepared to accept the challenge?

A Few Words From The East

Brethren:

It is my sincere pleasure and honor to serve as Worshipful Master of St. Alban Lodge No. 529, and it is my hope that this year will be one of Growth, Progress & Fraternal Love.

As I'm sure you are aware by now, this months Stated Meeting falls on Valentine's Day, so I found it essential to celebrate our Loved Ones who support us from outside of the Lodge with a program I affectionately refer to a "A Night For Love". Many of us have men and women whom aid us in our Masonic progression by supporting our efforts on our individual Masonic paths. Their understanding of what we do and why (while preserving our Oath & Obligation) is essential to the Harmony in our lives outside of the Lodge. It is my belief that by welcoming them in (while called off from Labor) we will show them the beauty and fellowship contained within the Lodge, and help to better define what it means to be a member of our illustrious Fraternity.

Sincerely & Fraternally

I like going back to my Lodge. I have found it refreshing and good to step aside out of the path of my busy life and sit again with the Masons who have carried on in my absence. — Edgar A. Guest
