Sunday, October 22nd, 2017

in Newport, Rhode Island, U.S.A.

Hosted by

St. Alban's Lodge No. 6
F. & A. M.
Bristol, Rhode Island,
USA

Friday, October 20th

Registration

Hospitality Suite

Grand Reception

---

Saturday, October 21st

Buffet Breakfast

The men and ladies will part company, to rejoin late afternoon.

Masonic Program

Business Meeting

Masonic Tour of Fort Adams

Fort Adams is the largest coastal fortification on the East Coast of the United States. Recent exploration has revealed a significant masonic past, as well as possible links to pre-Columbus, early European settlers. Runic markings hint at a possible Knights Templar and operative Freemason outpost in the New World.

Lunch

A Tiled Masonic Communication will be held within the Fort; presided over by the Grand Master of the Most Ancient & Honorable Society of Free & Accepted Masons for the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

---

Ladies' Program

Tour a Newport (Cottage) Mansion

Luncheon

Choice of afternoon tours and other activities

---

Hospitality Suite

The Hospitality Suite will be open in the afternoon to gather, share stories, and reunite with friends.

After their respective programs, the men & ladies will rejoin at the Mainstay Hotel for a reception & cash bar, banquet and dancing to follow.

Sunday, October 22nd

Buffet Brunch and Farewells

A Traditional New England Clambake
If you are familiar with clambakes, you know how good the food is and how much fun they are. If you are not, this the perfect opportunity to learn what all of the fuss is about. Bibs are provided (alternate meals available).
