The wearing of the Square and Compasses carries with it those demands that distinguish the Mason from others in the community.

It is an emblem of honor. It stands for stability of purpose. It speaks the words: My trust is in God.

It means respect for womanhood.

It means loyalty to country, both in time of peace and in time of war. It means obedience to law and opposition to all forms of hate-related violence.

It means that the wearer is trustworthy.

It means that the wearer's honor and reputation are concerned in supporting with dignity the character he bears, the emblem he displays and the Fraternity he represents.

Let us wear the Square and Compasses proudly.

A Few Words From The East

Greetings Brethren,

I hope this message finds you well and in good spirits. I assume by this time that the membership has been informed of the mandate the city of Philadelphia has put in place concerning the recent increase in Covid cases. The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania has designated the Masonic Temple as a "Fully Vaccinated Facility" which means that if you are not vaccinated you cannot enter the Masonic Temple

I cannot state strongly enough to come out to the meeting. I know that the covid virus has been tough on everybody, but we cannot let this dissuade us from maintaining and strengthen our fraternal bonds with each other. The meeting this month will be in Norman Hall, our usual dinner will be held in the lower banquet room. I hope to see a good showing

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Russell B. Combs, P.M., W.M.
Worshipful Master

Brethren, we contract with the caterer to provide for a certain number of dinners based on the figure provided by our Stewards. This figure comes from the number of members who sign up by phone or E-mail each month. We owe and must pay the caterer for the contracted figure regardless of whether you show up to eat or not. Please support our Lodge effort to control costs by understanding rules concerning dinner reservations.

☐ Reservations must be made no later than five days before the Stated Meeting date. No exceptions.

☐ If you reserve and do not show up without cancelling in advance, you are liable for the cost of the meal, and will be billed accordingly.
