A Few Words From The East

Greetings Brethren

I hope you and your families had an enjoyable Summer. Speaking of which, over the Summer we initiated six Entered Apprentice Masons into our fraternity. The first three were brought to true Masonic Light in July. In addition, we initiated three more Entered Apprentice Masons in August. The exciting part of all this is the EA's who were entered in July participated in the ritual for the latter. The Brothers were assigned various positions (Junior Deacon, Senior Deacon, and Senior Master of Ceremonies) for Degree work. They performed their duties magnificently and were really enthused to participate.

My Brothers, Saint Alban's future is secure based on what I witnessed this past summer! Furthermore, our stated meeting this month is Junior Warden's Night. Our very own Herman C. Wilson Jr. JW will assume the East. I am asking that you come out to support him as Worshipful Master for the evening. I can truly attest that there will be good food and fellowship.

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Joseph H. Cain, Jr., P.M.

Worshipful Master
