A Few Words From The East

Fraternal Greetings, Brethren-

Welcome back to second half of our Masonic year. I sincerely hope each of you are enjoying the summer! While we were on summer break, our Lodge has still been active by conferring Degrees throughout August. To everyone who helped, thank you for the support!

There is a quote from Leo Tolstoy's "War and Peace" about Freemasonry that I find is a good reminder to guide us in our conduct and mentality as we return to regular Stated Meetings. "In our temples we recognize no other distinctions...but those between virtue and vice. Beware of making any distinctions which may infringe equality. Fly to a brother's aid whoever he may be, exhort him who goeth astray, raise him that falleth, never bear malice or enmity toward thy brother. Be kindly and courteous. Kindle in all hearts the flame of virtue."

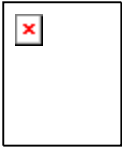

It is important for us to focus on what is important and useful for the betterment of ourselves and others. We should be cheerful in service and work to emulate kindness and virtue. What is something you can accomplish this day that can shine the light of Freemasonry on the world? I look forward to seeing many of you for our Stated Meeting where our Junior Warden, Bro. Evan T. Martin, will be taking the East for Junior Warden Night. Thank you and welcome back!

Fraternally Yours,

Kyle A. Schwirian
Worshipful Master

Mashed Potatoes, Green Beans, Caesar Salad
Penne in Vodka sauce
Chocolate Cake
$15.00

Please respond so we have an accurate count for the caterer and be sure to include any guests you intend to bring to dinner.

We thank you in advance for your cooperation and assistance in helping the Lodge to control expenditures.

Worshipful Master's Guidelines for Dinner Reservations

Brethren, we contract with the caterer to provide for a certain number of dinners based on the figure provided by our Stewards. This figure comes from the number of members who sign up by phone or E-mail each month. We owe and must pay the caterer for the contracted figure regardless of whether you show up to eat or not. Please support our Lodge effort to control costs by understanding rules concerning dinner reservations.

☐ Reservations must be made no later than ten days before the Stated Meeting date. No exceptions.

☐ If you reserve and do not show up without cancelling in advance, you are liable for the cost of the meal, and will be billed accordingly.

Call Brother Clancy to make or cancel reservations. If you are a no-show and do not pay, then we will not accept your reservations for future months until the cost is recovered. Remember, when you reserve, we will be charged whether you attend or not.
